

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY EVE., OCT. 17, 1883.

ROSSER & McARTHUR,
Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS.

TO-DAY'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

S. R. Powell—Rooms for rent.
For rent—Furnished rooms.

WINTER is coming,
But what of that,
For I still hang on,
Says the old straw hat.
As the story goes
You have heard about,
"It was a very cold day
When you froze me out."

The general health of Maysville just now is decidedly good.

PARTRIDGES are said to be very numerous in this neighborhood.

Is it not about time something was done in the matter of the Hord's Hill houses.

FREIGHT Conductor, H. C. Farm, fell from a car near Paris and was probably fatally injured.

The fashionable color of crushed strawberry is to be succeeded by "mashed custard apple."

The largest potato has occupied a considerable portion of public attention this fall, and the end is not yet.

The Biographical Encyclopedia of Ohio has been added recently to the library at the Historical Society rooms.

An electric light company has been organized at Cynthiana. Editor Kehoe, of the Democrat, is a stockholder.

TONY DENIER'S Pantomime troupe, one of the best in the country, will appear at Washington Opera House on the 25th inst.

The fall trade is opening as well as could be expected. The coming season promises to be a busy one for the merchants.

MR. ROBERT HILL is at Paris, doing some plastering for Messrs. Gus Dietrich & Son. Maysville mechanics are sought after everywhere.

Dogs are getting to be as bad a nuisance in Maysville as the hogs. Twenty-six of them were counted this morning on the esplanade on Market street.

It is not lawful to kill game in this State until the 20th of October. The general impression that the day fixed by law is the 15th of October is a mistake.

A SOCIAL meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church will be held on next Friday evening, at the residence of Mr. H. H. Collins, in Chester Street cars pass the door.

The ladies of the congregation of Stone Lock Church, near Orangeburg, will give an oyster and ice cream supper this (Wednesday) evening for the benefit of the church. Everybody is invited.

MESSRS. A. R. GLASCOCK & Co. are this week making an elegant display of the latest style cloaks. They have a very large stock and all the new styles. It is hardly necessary to say that their prices are very low.

MESSRS. J. C. OWENS & Co. have just received a handsome new safe, that is six and one-half feet in height, and weighs about two and one-half tons. It is supplied with a time lock, and was made by the Mostler Safe Company.

The new street cars will arrive at Lexington next week. They were made by the Stevenson Car Works, of New York, and are much handsomer than the old ones. Fifty-two mules have been bought in Texas, and were shipped this week.

PROF. THOS. F. LEARY will begin his class in book-keeping this evening in the room over the old post-office, lately occupied by Mr. Kackley as a photograph gallery. Prof. Leary is an experienced instructor, and a very useful man.

The collection of prehistoric articles at the Public Library rooms has lately been increased by an assortment of curious bone implements from mounds near Madisonville, Ohio. They are the property of Col. F. H. Bierbower, an indefatigable collector, of this city.

The best yeast bread exhibited at the Germantown fair was made by Mrs. E. F. Owens, of Minerva, and was awarded a first premium. It was made of "Old Gold" flour which is manufactured in this city, and is celebrated for its excellence. The premium awarded was a barrel of this flour.

During the war of 1812 the merchants of Mt. Sterling were accustomed to sell one grain of corn for nine-pence, and then give to the buyer a half pint of whisky. This practice was so general that a correspondence was opened with the Governor of Kentucky with a view to devising means to suppress it.

Circuit Court.

The grand jury reported the following indictments before their discharge Tuesday, viz:

The commonwealth of Kentucky vs. Ed. Threlkeld, vagrancy; same vs. John Parker, vagrancy; same vs. Henry Bush and Bill Green, unlawful gaming; same vs. Wm. Thomas, colored, keeping a disorderly house; same vs. Wm. Smith, colored, same offense; same vs. Charles Shepherd, carrying concealed, a deadly weapon; same vs. L. G. Auxier, suffering a game at which money &c. is won and lost, to be played on his premises; same vs. Jerry White, colored, wilfully and maliciously cutting another with intent to kill; same vs. Charles Whaley, colored, wilful and malicious shooting and wounding another; same vs. George W. Hancock, wilfully and maliciously shooting at and wounding another with intent to kill; same vs. Pres. Lawson, manslaughter; same vs. Elizabeth Bruce keeping a disorderly house.

The report of the grand jury concerning the public buildings is as follows:

To the Judge of the Mason Circuit Court: We, the grand jury, do leave to respectfully report that we have examined the jail, and find it neat and clean, and free from offensive odors and believe it to be as secure as it is possible to make it. We examined the new jail, and were politely shown through it by Mr. Chunn, and all its parts were explained by him. He thinks it will be in readiness for occupancy by the time of the meeting of the next Circuit Court. We regard it substantially constructed, and in every way suited for the purposes of a safe, secure, and convenient prison. We also examined the County and Circuit Clerks' offices. Everything in both offices is in perfect order. We were painfully impressed with the insecurity of the records in both offices in case of fire. All the furniture in both offices is wooden, and of the most combustible character. The doors of all the prisons are also of wood. We do most earnestly invite the attention of the proper county officers to this matter.

We extend to Sheriff Alexander our thanks for his courteous and prompt attention during our session. Having thoroughly examined into all the cases brought before us we respectfully ask to be discharged.

LUCIEN S. LUTTRELL, Foreman.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Hensley Hawkins has returned from a visit to Missouri.

Dr. Wm. G. Keith, of Dayton, Ky., was in the city yesterday.

Miss Anna Albert went to Cincinnati Monday night on the steamer Ohio.

J. Mat. Long was elected sheriff of Adams county, Ohio, by a handsome majority.

Mr. T. T. Emmons, of East Maysville, who has been sick for several weeks, is out again.

Miss Mollie Clark, who has been visiting in Winchester, Ky., returned to this city Monday night.

The Bourbon News says: Miss May Morgan arrived here last week to attend the Visitation Academy.

Mr. S. A. Piper, of Mayslick, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mollie, and niece Miss Anna Clarke, left this morning on an extended tour through the east. They may possibly visit Europe before they return.

Teachers' Institute.

The teachers of the public schools of Mason county will hold their regular institute in this city, at the city high school building on Friday and Saturday, November 2nd and 3rd. Every teacher in the public schools in the county is required by law to be present or be subject to a forfeiture of certificate.

Brockman Convicted.

SPECIAL TO DAILY BULLETIN.
BROOKSVILLE, Ky., October 16, 1883.—Charles Brockman, charged with committing a rape on the person of Miss Gollenstein, at Augusta, had his trial in the Circuit court to-day and was adjudged guilty. He was sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for twenty years.

COUNTY POINTS.

TUCKAHOE RIDGE.
Misses Sallie Holton, Flora and Maggie Bacon have returned home.

W. D. Parry and P. P. Parker, of Maysville, visited "River View" last Sunday.

Mrs. Hiram Carpenter, of Cane Ridge, is visiting the family of Mr. J. C. Pickett.

Robert Perrine has a very fine boy. This accounts for his looking unusually happy.

J. G. Bacon and a number of his family have gone to Cincinnati to spend several days.

Col. Anderson Nelson, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. J. M. Stockton, of Maysville, spent Thursday with the family of Mr. W. C. Holton.

Eljah Holton, of Champaign, Ill., and Mrs. Garrison Pluckard, of Aberdeen, Ohio, spent Saturday with friends in this neighborhood.

Elder Jos. C. Frank, who has been preaching for the Beasley Creek Church for several years, will continue his services through the coming year.

SUNDAY.

BURTONVILLE.

Born, to the wife of Wm. Harnback, a son. Corn crops are not very good in this locality.

Trig Selzer is erecting a commodious residence. Samuel Hull was here Saturday, the 12th, collecting taxes.

W. H. Thomas is doing a good business here in the dry goods line.

Misses Jennie Curtis and Mollie Gels are visiting relatives here.

Burtonville is rapidly improving. Peace and harmony reigns now.

The farmers here are about through sowing wheat and cutting tobacco.

S. T. Dodd and S. J. Parson are erecting a carriage and buggy manufactory here.

B. A. Hardiman has grown a gourd this year that is six feet and six inches in length.

Rev. Kilgore preached here Friday and Saturday nights, and Sunday the church was crowded.

This "Banner" cannon stove sold by Messrs. Egnew & Allen, is manufactured by Messrs. Ball, Mitchell & Co., of this city. It is of handsome pattern, heavy castings, possesses the best heating qualities, and is second to no other stove of the kind in the market. They will be manufactured largely by Messrs. Ball, Mitchell & Co., and are certain to be generally used, and popular in this neighborhood.

MARRIED.

October 17th, 1883, at the residence of M. J. Phelps, Miss NANNIE L. PHELPS, of Mason county, Ky., to Mr. F. S. MORRISON, of Fleming county, Ky.
